Racial Traits

Drow Magic. You know the dancing lights cantrip, and you can cast faerie fire, darkness, detect magic, and levitate (self only) spells each once per day. Charisma is your spellcasting ability for these spells, save DC 12.

Fey Ancestry. You have advantage on saving throws against being charmed, and magic can’t put you to sleep.

Sunlight Sensitivity. You have disadvantage on attack rolls and on Wisdom (Perception) checks that rely on sight when you, the target of your attack, or whatever you are trying to perceive is in direct sunlight.

Superior Darkvision. You can see in dim light within 120 feet of you as if it were bright light, and in darkness as if it were dim light.

Trance. You don’t need sleep. Instead, you meditate deeply, remaining semi-conscious, for 4 hours a day. While meditating, you can dream after a fashion; such dreams are actually mental exercises that have become reflexive through years of practice. After resting in this way, you gain the same benefit that a human does from 8 hours of sleep.

Class Features

Action Surge (Recharges After a Short or Long Rest). On your turn, you can take one additional action on top of your regular action and a possible bonus action.

Extra Attack. You can attack twice instead of once whenever you take the Attack action on your turn.

Fighting Style: Two-Weapon Fighting. When you engage in two-weapon fighting, you can add your ability modifier to the damage of the second attack.

Second Wind (Recharges After a Short or Long Rest). On your turn, you can use a bonus action to regain 1d10 + 7 hit points.

Martial Archetype: Champion
Improved Critical. Your weapon attacks score a critical hit on a roll of 19 or 20.

Remarkable Athlete. You can add +2 to any Strength, Dexterity, or Constitution check you make that doesn’t already use your proficiency bonus.

In addition, when you make a running long jump, the distance you can cover increases by 5 feet.

Feats

Dual Wielder. You gain +1 bonus to AC while you are wielding a separate melee weapon in each hand.

You can use two-weapon fighting even when the one-handed melee weapons you are wielding aren’t light.

You can draw or stow two one-handed weapons when you would normally be able to draw or stow only one.
Equipment

The elderboy of House Millithor possesses a +2 longsword, which is his favorite weapon. He wears +2 chain mail, and carries a small buckler. As secondary weapons, he wears a +1 shortsword, and conceals a pair of +1 daggers, one in each of his sleeves.

In addition, of course, Marckarius wears the standard piwafwi and boots of elvenkind common to the drow. He wears around his neck an amulet of proof against detection and location, keeping this concealed beneath his tunic. He also carries three metal flasks in a pouch nestled in the small of his back. These flasks contain single doses, each, of a potion of greater healing, a potion of invisibility, and a potion of flying.

On the mundane side, Marckarius possesses about 7,500 gp worth of fine jewelry—ruby and emerald rings, a diamond amulet (which he wears in plain sight) and earring bedecked with an assortment of gems. Though he does not wear these into battle, they are common accoutrements whenever he ventures out socially. The elderboy also has a personal stash of about 2,000 gp in ready cash.

Physical Description

Marckarius is somewhat shorter than the average drow, and slightly more heavyset. His physique is muscular, and his arms are unusually long. He wears his white hair short, finding this useful for combat—and also because he likes to be a little different from the typical Menzoberranyr drow.

Marckarius wears clothes of undeniably fine quality, as befits his idea of his own status. Silver and platinum threads are embroidered into his cloaks, shirts, and leggings—not, however, into his piwafwi. He is careful of his appearance at all times.

Personality

Marckarius is more sociable and fun-loving than the typical drow. He possesses the nasty alignment of most of his kin, but is unusually willing to cooperate with others in pursuit of a common task. He has been very loyal to his mother, and she, in turn, recognizes his value. He has been given an unusual amount of freedom for a drow male.

Motivations

Marckarius wants his house to survive and prosper, and he wishes to grow to a ripe old age—free to do what he wants. He is extremely wary of involvements with other clans or priestesses, but confident enough to be assertive when dealing with the priestesses of his own family.

Amulet of Proof against Detection and Location

Wondrous item, uncommon (requires attunement)

While wearing this amulet, you are hidden from divination magic. You can't be targeted by such magic or perceived through magical scrying sensors.

Boots of Elvenkind

Wondrous item, uncommon

While you wear these boots, your steps make no sound, regardless of the surface you are moving across. You also have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks that rely on moving silently.

Piwafwi

Wondrous item, uncommon (requires attunement)

While you wear this cloak with its hood up, Wisdom (Perception) checks made to see you have disadvantage, and you have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks made to hide, as the cloak's color shifts to camouflage you. Pulling the hood up or down requires an action.

Potion of Flying

Potion, very rare

When you drink this potion, you gain a flying speed equal to your walking speed for 1 hour and can hover. If you're in the air when the potion wears off, you fall unless you have some other means of staying aloft. This potion's clear liquid floats at the top of its container and has cloudy white impurities drifting in it.

Potion of Healing

Potion, common

You regain 2d4 + 2 hit points when you drink this potion. The potion's red liquid glimmers when agitated.

Potion of Invisibility

Potion, very rare

This potion's container looks empty but feels as though it holds liquid. When you drink it, you become invisible for 1 hour. Anything you wear or carry is invisible with you. The effect ends early if you attack or cast a spell.

- 1st-level: charm person, disguise self
- 2nd-level: mirror image, pass without trace
- 3rd-level: blink, dispel magic
- 4th-level: dimension door, polymorph
Equipment

Narcelia has a choice of favorite weapons. Her mace of blinding is a potent weapon that has this additional effect: anyone who is struck with it must make a DC 15 Charisma saving throw or be blinded for 1 minute. Alternately, Narcelia has a +1 scourge.

She also wears the usual piwafwi and boots of elvenkind employed by the drow. Her shirt is elven chain, and she usually does not carry a shield. She does, however, have three metal flasks of potion concealed in a pouch at the small of her back; these contain a potion of greater healing, a potion of diminution (single dose each), and oil of sharpness—enough for 4 uses.

Though not prone to ostentatious displays, the priestess has several rings and a brooch (worth a total of 3,000 gp) that she wears for ceremonial occasions. Also, Narcelia has access to her own source of funds, totaling about 10,000 gp worth of coins.

Elven chain, mace of blinding, +1 scourge, dagger, holy symbol amulet, insignia of House Millithor, piwafwi, boots of elvenkind, potion of greater healing, potion of diminution, and oil of sharpness (4).

Physical Description

Narcelia is a remarkably somber-appearing drow, not prone to the cackling displays of vicious humor that characterize so many drow high priestesses. She is lithe and attractive, but tends to wear modest and unadorned garments that conceal her body and the back of her head. Her hair is exceptionally long, but she usually keeps it bound at the base of her neck.

Personality

Narcelia is careful and thoughtful far beyond the normal standards of the drow. She is considered by many to be a little slow—this is a mistake, however. In reality, she is a precise planner and, if she takes her time to develop a plan, that plan is likely to have few flaws. She does not enjoy cruelty for cruelty's sake, and even recognizes the uses of kindness in earning the loyalty of underlings and allies.

Motivations

Narcelia is curious about the world beyond Menzoberranzan. She is very loyal to her mother, and intends to become the next matron mother of House Millithor—but not for a century or two. She is suspicious of the schemes of others, and carefully examines suggestions and directives, looking for weaknesses.

Boots of Elvenkind

Wondrous item, uncommon (requires attunement)

While you wear this cloak with its hood up, Wisdom (Perception) checks made to see you have disadvantage, and you have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks made to hide, as the cloak's color shifts to camouflage you. Pulling the hood up or down requires an action.

Potion of Diminution

Potion, rare

When you drink this potion, you gain the "reduce" effect of the enlarge/reduce spell for 1d4 hours (no concentration required). The red in the potion's liquid continuously contracts to a tiny bead and then expands to color the clear liquid around it. Shaking the bottle fails to interrupt this process.

Potion of Greater Healing

Potion, uncommon

You regain 4d4 + 4 hit points when you drink this potion. The potion's red liquid glimmers when agitated.

Weapon Bond. You perform a ritual over the course of 1 hour, which can be done during a short rest. The weapon must be within your reach throughout the ritual, at the conclusion of which you touch the weapon and forge the bond.

Once you have bonded a weapon to yourself, you can’t be disarmed of that weapon unless you are incapacitated. If it is on the same plane of existence, you can summon that weapon as a bonus action on your turn, causing it to teleport instantly to your hand.

You can have up to two bonded weapons, but can summon only one at a time with your bonus action. If you attempt to bond with a third weapon, you must break the bond with one of the other two.

SPELLS KNOWN

Cantrips: blade ward, light

1st-level spells: burning hands, fog cloud, magic missile, shield

2nd-level spells: invisibility
Equipment

Torrellan carries a +2 longsword as his weapon of choice. The blade has a special characteristic—if it strikes a critical hit, the victim must make a DC 13 Constitution saving throw. Failure means that the victim is paralyzed for 1 minute. He also carries a +1 hand crossbow, with one six +2 bolts.

Torrellan wears +1 chain mail and carries a +1 buckler for protection. He wears boots of elvenkind, and keeps a +2 dagger in his sleeve. His most prized possession is a cloak of the bat.

+1 chain mail, +1 buckler, +2 longsword of paralysis, +2 dagger, +1 hand crossbow, +2 crossbow bolt (6), crossbow bolts (14) tipped with drow poison, crossbow bolt case, insignia of House Millithor, cloak of the bat, and boots of elvenkind.

Physical Description

Torrellan is a dashing, handsome young drow. He is larger than his older brother, which makes him about average in size. He wears his white hair long and unbound (except when combat might be expected). He spends a lot on his wardrobe, and is usually encountered with a cloak outlined in faerie fire, often with some kind of exotic hat on his head. He is much sought after by the females of the city.

Personality

Torrellan is famed as a practical joker. He delights in situations that are embarrassing to others—but he has an ability, very rare in drow, to also appreciate jokes directed against himself. He is easygoing and talkative, though he sometimes stretches the bounds of good taste in order to make a point.

However, he Millithor Secondboy is also quite sensitive to the pain of those he cares for. He will not forgive any slight directed against his family, and he’s more vocal about his desire for revenge than most drow are comfortable with.

Motivations

Torrellan is unusually devoted to his family—perhaps because they have not treated him with the cruelty that is the norm among drow society. He is loyal to his older brother; and will stick his neck out for anyone of his steady companions who might need his help. Torrellan wants to have some fun with his life, and he’s not afraid to take a few risks.

Boots of Elvenkind

Wondrous item, uncommon

While you wear these boots, your steps make no sound, regardless of the surface you are moving across. You also have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks that rely on moving silently.

Cloak of the Bat

Wondrous item, rare (requires attunement)

While wearing this cloak, you have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks. In an area of dim light or darkness, you can grip the edges of the cloak with both hands and use it to fly at a speed of 40 feet. If you ever fail to grip the cloak’s edges while flying in this way, or if you are no longer in dim light or darkness, you lose this flying speed.

While wearing the cloak in an area of dim light or darkness, you can use your action to cast polymorph on yourself, transforming into a bat. While you are in the form of the bat, you retain your Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores. The cloak can’t be used this way again until the next dawn.

Longsword of Paralysis

Weapon (longsword), very rare

You have a +2 bonus to attack and damage rolls made with this magic weapon.

If you strike a critical hit with this weapon, the target must make a DC 15 Constitution saving throw or be paralyzed for 1 minute. The paralyzed target can repeat the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, ending the effect on itself on a success.

Equipment

Dariel employs a +2 longsword as his major weapon of choice, though he also possesses a pair of +1 hand crossbows.

He has the typical piwafwi and boots of elvenkind worn by the drow and he has elven chain for protection. In addition, the pin he wears on his lapel is in fact a brooch of shielding. He has a pair of metal vials in his pockets, each contains six applications of magical dust of disappearance. He also routinely carries a flask of dust of dryness and wears a ring of poison resistance.

Since he is not of pure Millithor blood, Dariel does not have access to as much of the family fortune as do his adopted siblings. Still, he has stashed away some 1,200 gp.

Elven chain, +2 longsword, dagger, +1 hand crossbow (2), insignia of House Millithor, piwafwi, boots of elvenkind, brooch of shielding, dust of disappearance (6), dust of dryness, and ring of poison resistance.

Physical Description

Dariel is a thin, nervous drow. He survived his original house’s slaughter (House Kront’Tane)—since he was a second generation noble, his life or death was irrelevant once the matron mother and her offspring had perished. As such, he appealed for and was granted the protection of House Millithor.

Dariel dresses simply, in unadorned black—except for the small silver pin, in the shape of a miniature dagger, he wears on his collar. His hair is long, but he carefully binds it behind his head. He is tall enough that his lanky nature appears almost gaunt.

Personality

Because of the disastrous fate of his original house, Dariel tends to be a worrier. He is cautious, suspicious, and meticulous. More than any of his family-mates, Dariel is careful to examine every side of a situation for potential traps and pitfalls.

On the other hand, when a course of action has been determined, Dariel puts his energies behind it to the maximum of his abilities. This tenacity has drawn the admiration of the Matron Mother, and assures that he will have a place in House Millithor for as long as he wants.
Motivations
Dariel is determined to do everything in his power to ensure the survival of House Millithor. In fact, so thoroughly has he been adopted that he places the house’s survival above his own.

Boots of Elvenkind
Wondrous item, uncommon
While you wear these boots, your steps make no sound, regardless of the surface you are moving across. You also have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks that rely on moving silently.

Brooch of Shielding
Wondrous item, uncommon (requires attunement)
While wearing this brooch, you have resistance to force damage, and you have immunity to damage from the magic missile spell.

Dust of Disappearance
Wondrous item, uncommon
Found in a small packet, this powder resembles very fine sand. There is enough of it for one use. When you use an action to throw the dust into the air, you and each creature or object within 10 feet of you become invisible for 10 minutes. The duration is the same for all subjects, and the dust is consumed when its magic takes effect. If a creature affected by the dust attacks or casts a spell, the invisibility ends for that creature.

Dust of Dryness
Wondrous item, uncommon
This small packet contains 1d6 + 4 pinches of dust. You can use an action to sprinkle a pinch of it over water. The dust turns a cube of water 15 feet on a side into one marble-sized pellet, which floats or rests near where the dust was sprinkled. The pellet’s weight is negligible.

Someone can use an action to smash the pellet against a hard surface, causing the pellet to shatter and release the water the dust absorbed. Doing so ends that pellet’s magic.

An elemental composed mostly of water that is exposed to a pinch of the dust must make a DC 13 Constitution saving throw, taking 10d6 necrotic damage on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one.

Piwafwi
Wondrous item, uncommon (requires attunement)
While you wear this cloak with its hood up, Wisdom (Perception) checks made to see you have disadvantage, and you have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks made to hide, as the cloak’s color shifts to camouflage you. Pulling the hood up or down requires an action.

Ring of Poison Resistance
Ring, rare (requires attunement)
You have resistance to poison damage. The gem in the ring is an amethyst.

You prepare the list of cleric spells that are available for you to cast. To do so, choose 10 spells. The spells must be of a level for which you have spell slots.

To cast a spell, you must expend a slot of the spell’s level or higher. You regain all expended spell slots when you finish a long rest.

You can use a holy symbol as a spellcasting focus for your cleric spells.

You can cast any cleric spell as a ritual if that spell has the ritual tag.

The illusion appears in an unoccupied space that you can see within 30 feet of you. As a bonus action on your turn, you can move the illusion up to 30 feet to a space you can see, but it must remain within 120 feet of you.

- Turn Undead. As an action, you present your holy symbol and speak a prayer cursing the undead. Each undead that can see or hear you within 30 feet of you must succeed on a DC 14 Wisdom saving throw or become turned for 1 minute or until it takes any damage. If the creature has a challenge rating of 1/2 or lower, it is destroyed instead.

  A turned creature must spend its turns trying to move as far away from you as it can, and it can’t willingly move to a space within 30 feet of you. It also can’t take reactions. For its action, it can use only the Dash action or try to escape from an effect that prevents it from moving. If there’s nowhere to move, the creature can use the Dodge action.

Divine Domain: Trickery

Blessing of the Trickster. You can use your action to touch a willing creature other than yourself to give it advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks. This blessing lasts for 1 hour or until you use this feature again.

Domain Spells. You know the following domain spells that are always prepared and don’t count against the number of spells you can prepare each day:

- 1st-level: charm person, disguise self

- 2nd-level: mirror image, pass without trace

- 3rd-level: blink, dispel magic

- 4th-level: dimension door, polymorph

Equipment

Carcelen relies upon her +2 scourge as her primary weapon and wears elven chain for protection. She also carries an assortment of powders and potions, tiny glass vials stored in her belt. Unless noted, there is one dose of each: dust of disappearance, dust of dryness, oil of slipperiness, potion of clairvoyance, potion of force resistance, potion of growth, potion of healing, and potion of mind reading. She also wears a ring of evasion, and has a six spell scrolls of cure wounds.

Carcelen is not frugal with her money, though she has jewelry worth some 10,000 gp. Most of this is in chains of various types (gold, silver, and platinum) that she wears around her neck, wrists, waist, and ankles. She has a cash stockpile of around 3,000 gp.

- Elven chain, +2 scourge, dagger, holy symbol amulet, insignia of House Millithor, piwafwi, boots of elvenkind, dust of disappearance, dust of dryness, oil of slipperiness, potion of clairvoyance, potion of force resistance, potion of growth, potion of healing, potion of mind reading, ring of evasion, spell scroll of cure wounds (6), and scroll case.

Physical Description

Carcelen is quite the opposite of her serious and dignified older sister. The younger daughter of House Millithor is humorous and social—a natural leader among females, and very attractive to males. Carcelen wears bright colored garments, often bedecked with patterns faerie fire, silver, and platinum. Her clothes do not always serve the interests of modesty, but other drow are guaranteed to find them interesting. Her hair is very long, and usually unkempt—swirling about her shoulders and back, hanging past her waist when it is unbound.

Personality

Carcelen is extraordinarily carefree for a drow. She delights in adventure and new experiences, and is curious to the point of rashness. Though she understands the treacherous nature of drow society, she herself tends to remain aloof from double-crosses and betrayals. She enjoys that stuff as much as the next drow, but its fine with her to observe the squabbles between other dark elves, rather than to try and create her own.

Motivations

For all her spontaneity, Carcelen is a loyal member of House Millithor. She is devoted to her mother and will not hesitate to follow the matron’s instructions. She is courageous and steady in times of crisis, and willing to take great chances—if the reward is worthwhile.

Boots of Elvenkind

Wondrous item, uncommon
While you wear these boots, your steps make no sound, regardless of the surface you are moving across. You also have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks that rely on moving silently.

Elven Chain

Armor (chain shirt), rare

You gain a +1 bonus to AC while you wear this armor. You are considered proficient with this armor even if you lack proficiency with medium armor.

Oil of Slipperiness

Potion, uncommon

This sticky black unguent is thick and heavy in the container, but it flows quickly when poured. The oil can cover a Medium or smaller creature, along with the equipment it’s wearing and carrying (one additional vial is required for each size category above Medium). Applying the oil takes 10 minutes. The affected creature then gains the effect of a freedom of movement spell for 8 hours.

Alternatively, the oil can be poured on the ground as an action, where it covers a 10-foot square, duplicating the effect of the grease spell in that area for 8 hours.

Piwafwi

Wondrous item, uncommon (requires attunement)

While you wear this cloak with its hood up, Wisdom (Perception) checks made to see you have disadvantage, and you have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks made to hide, as the cloak’s color shifts to camouflage you. Pulling the hood up or down requires an action.

Potion of Clairvoyance

Potion, rare

When you drink this potion, you gain the effect of the clairvoyance spell. An eyeball bobs in this yellowish liquid but vanishes when the potion is opened.

Potion of Force Resistance

Potion, uncommon

When you drink this potion, you gain resistance to force damage for 1 hour.

Potion of Growth

Potion, uncommon

When you drink this potion, you gain the "enlarge" effect of the enlarge/reduce spell for 1d4 hours (no concentration required). The red in the potion’s liquid continuously expands from a tiny bead to color the clear liquid around it and then contracts. Shaking the bottle fails to interrupt this process.

Potion of Healing

Potion, common

You regain 2d4 + 2 hit points when you drink this potion. The potion’s red liquid glimmers when agitated.

Potion of Mind Reading

Potion, rare

When you drink this potion, you gain the effect of the detect thoughts spell (save DC 13). The potion’s dense, purple liquid has an ovoid cloud of pink floating in it.

Ring of Evasion

Ring, rare (requires attunement)

This ring has 3 charges, and it regains 1d3 expended charges daily at dawn. When you fail a Dexterity saving throw while wearing it, you can use your reaction to expend 1 of its charges to succeed on that saving throw instead.

Arcane Tradition: School of Evocation

Evocation Savant. The gold and time you must spend to copy an evocation spell into your spellbook is halved.

Potent Cantrip. Your damaging cantrips affect even creatures that avoid the brunt of the effect. When a creature succeeds on a saving throw against your cantrip, the creature takes half the cantrip's damage (if any) but suffers no additional effect from the cantrip.

Sculpt Spells. You can create pockets of relative safety within the effects of your evocation spells. When you cast an evocation spell that affects other creatures that you can see, you can choose a number of them equal to 1 + the spell's level. The chosen creatures automatically succeed on their saving throws against the spell, and they take no damage if they would take half damage on a successful save.

Equipment

Quertus keeps his hands free when he goes about Menzoberranzan or the Underdark, but he has a number of items in easy reach. His +3 dagger is concealed in his sleeve—he can drop it into his hand with a quick twitch of his elbow. He wears a ring of jumping and a ring of the ram. His robe, described above, is a piwafwi and also a cloak of shielding. On his left forearm he carries a wand of paralysis. He also has spell scrolls containing 10 spell levels of spells (maximum of 5 spells; maximum level 4th). The player can select these spells, subject to DM approval.

Quertus owns about 2000 gp worth of jewelry. He also has a private cache of some 12,000 gp.

+3 dagger, arcane focus crystal, insignia of House Millithor, boots of elvenkind, ring of jumping, ring of the ram, piwafwi of shielding, wand of paralysis, spell scrolls (10 spell levels), scroll case, and spellbook.

Physical Description

Quertus Millithor is a pale and exceptionally youthful-looking drow—a fact that has caused more than one dark elf to assume that he is a weakening and target for abuse. Such bullies always find out differently, though often the fact is the last thing they learn in their lives. He dresses well, but cannot quite conceal his stooped shoulders or pinched, narrow face. His hair is naturally fine, but it looks so stringy on his head that he has taken to shaving his scalp. He wears a cloak with the House Millithor emblem emblazoned on the back in faerie fire—though he can quench the display with a command word, should stealth be required.

Personality

Quertus is sensitive about his looks, and quick to take offense at someone who insults him. When this is not the case, however, he can be sociable. He enjoys conversations about all manner of topics, and seeks whenever possible to learn things from those he talks to.

Quertus is a cousin of the Millithor noble family—he is not a descendant of the Matron Mother. He goes out of his way to make sure that everyone treats him like a true member of the family—he resists any suggestions to the contrary.

Motivations

Quertus is very determined to prove that he is a full-fledged member of the Millithor clan. He always does his part, and regularly exhorts his fellow family members to do the same. He aspires to wizardly greatness, and will gladly sacrifice wealth or possessions for things that he thinks will bring him greater magical abilities.

Boots of Elvenkind

Wondrous item, uncommon

While you wear these boots, your steps make no sound, regardless of the surface you are moving across. You also have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks that rely on moving silently.

Piwafwi of Shielding

Wondrous item, rare (requires attunement)
While you wear this cloak with its hood up, Wisdom (Perception) checks made to see you have disadvantage, and you have advantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks made to hide, as the cloak's color shifts to camouflage you. Pulling the hood up or down requires an action.

While wearing this cloak, you have resistance to force damage, and you have immunity to damage from the magic missile spell.

Ring of Jumping
Ring, uncommon (requires attunement)

While wearing this ring, you can cast the jump spell from it as a bonus action at will, but can target only yourself when you do so.

Ring of the Ram
Ring, rare (requires attunement)

This ring has 3 charges, and it regains 1d3 expended charges daily at dawn. While wearing the ring, you can use an action to expend 1 to 3 of its charges to attack one creature you can see within 60 feet of you. The ring produces a spectral ram's head and makes its attack roll with a +7 bonus. On a hit, for each charge you spend, the target takes 2d10 force damage and is pushed 5 feet away from you.

Alternatively, you can expend 1 to 3 of the ring's charges as an action to try to break an object you can see within 60 feet of you that isn't being worn or carried. The ring makes a Strength check with a +5 bonus for each charge you spend.

Wand of Paralysis
Wand, rare (requires attunement by a spellcaster)

This wand has 7 charges. While holding it, you can use an action to expend 1 of its charges to cause a thin blue ray to streak from the tip toward a creature you can see within 60 feet of you. Make a ranged attack roll against that creature using your spell attack bonus. On a hit, the target is paralyzed for 1 minute. At the end of each of the target's turns, it can repeat the saving throw, ending the effect on itself on a success.
