This playset is an accessory for the Fiasco RPG. Fiasco is copyright 2009 by Jason Morningstar, all rights reserved.

Infomercial World was written by Liam Ginty who also did most of the art. Editing and playtesting from a whole host of incredible people, including but not limited to Kieran Wilkinson, Sarah Ginty, Kate Perino, Simon Henderson, Keith Evans and a bunch of other wonderful people. If I missed anyone they can sue me to have their names put here. Just kidding, don’t sue me.

But wait, there’s more!

After a late night of particularly terrible television, you pass out on your couch with your roommates, loved ones and friends around you. Your sleep is restless, no doubt because of that old sofa and the drone of the sales person on the screen promising even more pans, pens and books if you buy now.

When you finally awake, you’re not in your own home, the world around you is strangely washed out, almost grey but not quite. You look around to see your friends around you, still passed out. You stand, and drop a bowl of chips, carefully you try to make it over to your friends, only to trip on your loose shoes, spilling beer and soda everywhere. A man appears in the doorway, his hands full of gizmos and gadgets, his face twists into a horrible smile...

It quickly becomes apparent that you’ve become trapped in the nightmare that is Infomercial World.

You have to escape, somehow, someway. You don’t know how, but your only option left is to act now!
